A vigorous war on vagrants should be inaugurated in Wilmington.

You may safely bet your old straw hat that none of the negro refugees from Atlanta will stop in Wilmington.

Tennessee has a politician named Ham. If he doesn't talk right on the stump it will be a case of Ham and eggs.

Speaking of the "inheritance tax," we do not hesitate or falter to say that we would not mind paying it on a million dollars that anybody wants to throw our way.

Many a politician took a seat on the Bryan band-wagon with the idea that they could get a transfer ticket if the wagon isn't going to the end of the line.

No one need fear that the trouble in Cuba will affect the price of Havana cigars, as the Connecticut and Pennsylvania growers who furnish the tobacco for them will not let a little thing like an insurrection make them squeeze up the prices.

Speaking of things difficult to reconcile, it is hard to understand how Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, can make his opposition to the government ownership of railroads and his adherence to the State ownership of rum shops fit in the same socket.

It is reported that a Kentuckian has secured a concession from Turkey to ship water from the River Jordan to all parts of the world. Of course, he doesn't expect to ship much of the article to Kentucky.

While facing all kinds of accusations the meat packers have never been accused of putting up "canned dog." Nevertheless some men go right on growling over what they have to eat.

When Senator Bailey's attention was called to the fact that some of his constituents were raising — (simplified spelling) because of his alleged connection with the Watters-Pierce Oil Company, he refused to talk for publication. He was right. A broadside of cuss-words wouldn't look well in print.

NEGRO WOMAN SHOT

Enraged Husband Sought Out His Wife and Put Bullet Through Her Heart.

YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

Murderer Makes His Escape But Sheriff's Posse is in Pursuit—Coroner's Inquest Places Responsibility For the Crime.

Mary McKoy, a young colored woman reputed to be the lawful wife of William Ashe, a negro fisherman and hunter living near the Navassa Guano Factory, across the river, was shot and almost instantly killed by her husband shortly after noon yesterday at the home of a colored woman friend to whose house she had fled for refuge in this city. Immediately after the shooting the negro fled to Brunswick county across Hilton bridge and had not been captured at last accounts, though Sheriff Stedman and a posse were after him near Navassa until a late hour.

Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, summoned a jury of inquest and completed an investigation of the killing at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon, all the facts brought out indicating that it was another cold-blooded murder. The shooting ocurred at Sixth and Taylor streets near the house of a colored woman named Florence Cook with whom the McKoy woman had been stopping since Sunday. She said that she and her husband had a difficulty Saturday night and that in fear of her life, she fled to Wilmington for refuge. Yesterday morning Ashe came to town and went to the house of the Cook woman, waiting the return of his wife who had stepped off a short distance. When she came up to the Cook woman's house she was informed that her husband was in there waiting for her. She became at once terrified and fled, the husband having caught sight of her in the meantime and pursued her for some distance. They clinched in the street, but the woman finally broke away and ran back through the house shouting for help. The man pursued her on through the back way of the woman's house and into the street again where she was overtaken. While they were clinched in the street, the man drew his pistol and fired, the ball passing into the region of the heart and penetrating the lungs. The woman ran for some distance and fell dead. Ashe then made his escape.

The injury of inquest empanelled by Dr. Bell was composed of Messrs. P. A. Harris, foreman; W. V. Sellers, secretary; C. I. Shepard, J. D. Sidbury, R. L. Sellers and F. M. Brown. There were three eye witnesses of the affair and a verdict was returned that the deceased came to her death as the result of a gun shot wound fired by William Ashe. The body was viewed by the jury in the street where it lay for some time after the killing, a large crowd having collected there out of morbid curiosity. Mr. C. H. Casteen, who keeps a store on the corner of Taylor street and Brown's alley, was one of the chief witnesses. He heard two pistol shots; saw the man and woman fighting in the street and saw Ashe when he fired and escaped toward the oil mill. The story as related above was told by the woman, Florence Cook, at whose house the McKoy woman was stopping.

As soon after the killing as possible Sheriff Stedman organized a posse consisting of Deputy Sheriff W. H. Cox, Constable Savage, Mr. H. M. Chase, Policeman W. G. Brinkley and others and together they went across the river to the home of the negro Ashe with the hope that they could locate the negro last night.

DIXON IS DISGUSTED

State Auditor Discusses New Hanover and Brunswick Senatorial Situation — Presentation of North Carolina Service.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 26.—State Auditor B. F. Dixon returned this morning from a trip into Eastern Carolina delivering campaign speeches, the last one having been at Southport Monday night. He says he had fine crowds and found the interest and enthusiasm very great wherever he went. He expressed surprise and disgust at the turn things have taken in New Hanover where, after Geo. H. Bellamy, of Brunswick, was nominated in the New Hanover primaries to represent the two counties in the State Senate the New Hanover delegates in the convention, when it came to declaring the nomination of Mr. Bellamy, refused to go into the nomination and withdrew from the convention. He thinks that the opponents of Mr. Bellamy should have made their fight in the primary and not presented the spectacle of flying right into the teeth of the wishes of the party as expressed in the primary as they did by their action in the convention.

Govenor Glenn has received a letter from President Jno. L. Watson, of the Portsmouth Business Men's Association, extending an invitation for North Carolina to present the silver service to the armored cruiser North Carolina in the Navy Yard at Portsmouth where the vessel is being built. The invitation was called forth by notice they had seen of the invitation extended by Charleston people and the Governor of South Carolina for the Charleston port to be used. Portsmouth, President Watson urged, is much more convenient for North Carolinians and the ceremony can be held during the Jamestown Exposition.

BERNARD O'NEILL'S CONDITION

Wound Not so Bad as First Reported —Will Recover.

Private advices from Chapel Hill yesterday stated that the wounding of young Bernard O'Neill, the University student from this city, by Freshman J. J. Hatch, an account of which appeared in yesterday's paper, was not near so serious as was at first reported. The news was received with great gratification by the many friends of the student in this city. It is thought now that it will be only a question of a short time until he will be able to be up again.

Young Hatch, who did the shooting, is from Mount Olive, N. C., and is about 17 years of age. O'Neill with two other Sophomores met Hatch on the campus near the fraternity buildings and in a playful mood, O'Neill is said to have come in contact with the lower classman, who drew his pistol and fired, claiming self defence for the act. A special from Chapel Hill to the News and Observer of yesterday says that O'Neill stands well in college and the sympathy of the student body seems to be with him in the affair.

The following special telegram was sent out from the University yesterday:

Chapel Hill, Sept. 26.—Bernard O'Neill, the student who was shot here on the University campus last night by J. J. Hatch, a freshman, is resting well to-day and no serious fears of complications are entertained by his physicians. He will be removed to his home in Wilmington in a few days. Hatch who gave himself up to the authorities last night was released on bond this morning. His father has arrived from Mount Olive and is with him.

Doctors Venable and Alexander went on Hatch's bond.

This matter will probably not come up in court as O'Neill refuses under any consideration to give evidence against Hatch.

Died in Washington, D. C.

The friends of Mrs. J. H. Montague, of Montague, N. C., will deeply sympathize with her in the death of her mother, Mrs. Mary E. Berkley, which occurred at her home in Washington, D. C., on Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Augustus E. Berkley, and eight children who have the tenderest sympathy of all in their bereavement. Mrs. Montague was called by telegram to her mother's bedside and all members of the family were with her when the end came. Mrs. Berkley had frequently visited her daughter at Montague and has many friends in that community who will hear of her death with sincere sorrow.

TO TREAT THEM ALL

Pastors of Wilmington Churches Unite With Dr. McKanna in Liquor Cure.

THE GAP IS THROWN DOWN

Free of Charge, Remedy Will Be Administered to All Who Come With Endorsement of Ministers—Demonstration Ended.

The demonstration of the celebrated Three-Day Liquor Cure by Dr. J. J. McKanna with a class of five patients suggested by the Mayor and Chief of Police of the city, ended at 6 o'clock yesterday evening and the testimony of the patients themselves is given in a large, page advertisement which will be found elsewhere in to-day's paper. The demonstration was watched with much interest in Wilmington generally and the cure has been pronounced wonderful by many who have had occasion to watch its administration.

At the urgent request of a number of pastors of Wilmington churches, Dr. McKanna has decided to remain in the city for the balance of the week and has consented to treat free of charge every head of a family in Wilmington, who has a wife, sister or mother dependent upon him for a livelihood, the applicants to be endorsed by the pastor of the church to which the wife, mother or sister may belong. Dr. McKanna says he has never made this offer but different pastors have been to see him about so many patients who ought to have the treatment and are unable to pay for it, that he has decided to throw down the gap and take care of as many men as will be brought to him and are considered worthy. He says that he realizes that the number may be 300, but he is ready for them all. The pastors have united in a movement for the treatment and have rented a hall where the doctor and his patients will hold forth until the last one has been cured. In order that all worthy cases may be looked after, Dr. McKanna asks all pastors interested to meet him at The Orton this morning at 10 o'clock, when the movement will take definite shape. The demonstration patients, who have just completed the cure, will be glad to give any information that may be desired.

THE NEED OF BLOODHOUNDS.

Their Purchase by the County is Strongly Urged.

Solicitor Rodolph Duffy is a firm believer in bloodhounds as a means of running down criminals and events of the past several days in Wilmington seem to warrant the confidence thus reposed. With any sort of trained dogs, it would have been the easiest matter in the world to have tracked and run to cover the two negroes responsible for the two homicides occurring among the colored people, both of whom are still at large.

Mr. Duffy relates the story of a conviction he recently secured in Greene county for store burning in which a pair of bloodhounds from a neighboring county did the work and did it well, on a track fifteen hours old. He believes in the dogs not only as a means of tracking criminals after the crime has been done but also as a deterrent of crime. His argument seems good in either point of view and with the large convict force maintained by New Hanover, it would seem but the part of prudence that dogs be purchased by the County Commissioners. The expense of their keep could be easily paid out of requests from other counties for the services of the hounds. The matter should commend itself very strongly to the Commissioners, especially in the light of the two murders that have been committed within the past few days.

To Wed In October.

Purnell request the honor of your presence at the marirage of their daughter Adelia Ellen to Mr. Robert Ridley, Jr., on Wednesday evening October the tenth nineteen hundred and six at nine o'clock Christ Church, Raleigh, North Carolina." AFTERNOON WEDDING

Miss Eunice Bland Becomes Attractive Young Bride of Mr. W. R. McRackan, of Whiteville—Pretty Ceremony at Mrs. Vann's.

A quiet but very pretty weddding ceremony was celebrated in this city yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. J. D. Vann, No. 405 Walnut street, when Miss Eunyce Bland, the attractive young daughter of Mrs. Eliza Bland, of Wilmington, became the bride of Mr. W. R. McRackan, a prominent young business man of Whiteville, N. C. The parlors of the home were very attractively decorated for the occasion and a number of friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. F. T. Wooten, of Chadbourn. The marriage scene is described as being a very pretty one indeed.

The bride was attended as maid of honor by Miss Zelma Bland, of Burgaw, while her bridesmaids were Misses Bypha Corbett, of Moultrie, Ga., and Miss Emily McRackan, of Whiteville. The groom was attended by Mr. H. L. Foard, of Whiteville. The bride wore a becoming going-away gown of grey material and carried a lovely bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor was in white and carried carnations. The bridesmaids wore white with pink sashes, the assemblage at the improvised altar being very pretty indeed. The decorations all over the house were by Rehder.

The bridal party was entertained at the home of Mrs. Vann on Tuesday night. A large number of very handsome wedding gifts were displayed attesting the popularity of the bride and groom, both in this city and at Whiteville. After the ceremony yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. McRackan received the happy congratulations of very many friends and left on the afternoon train for their future home at Whiteville.

SUNDAY NIGHT MURDER.

Coroner's Jury Investigated Killing of Charlie Washington, Colored.

The coroner's jury empanelled yesterday to inquire into the circumstances of the killing of the young negro Charlie Washington on Seventh street, Sunday night, returned a verdict placing the responsibility on the negro Fred Hill, alias Fields, who has fled the county. The burden of the testimony before the jury was that the two negroes had previously had a fight at Seventh and Castle streets Saturday night and that they met at the shop of Tom Brown, on Seventh street, the following night; that words passed between the two about the former altercation and that Hill drew a pistol and deliberately shot Washington in the stomach. He remained in the hospital with his intestines punctured in 21 places until he died Monday night about 9 o'clock.

The jury of inquest was composed of Dr. T. B. Carroll, Messrs. L. Freimuth, F. W. Cornish, R. H. Reville, T. N. Simmons and B. W. Dunham.

CONTRACT FOR FIRE HOSE.

Committee Made Award For Two Thousand Feet Yesterday.

The Fire Committee of the Board of Aldermen, composed of Chairman Martin Rathjen and Messrs. W. W. King and W. E. Yopp, met yesterday at noon at the City Hall and opened bids for furnishing the city with 2,000 feet of standard fire hose as previously advertised for. There were two bidders, represented as follows: The Fabric Fire Hose Company, of New York, by Mr. Jas. G. Rafter, of Baltimore and the Eureka Fire Hose Co., of New Jersey, by Mr. P. O. Hebart, of Atlanta. Both representatives submitted their bids and were heard as to the relative merits of what they had to offer the city. The Fabric Fire Hose Co., bid 90 cents per foot for the Keystone and 80 cents for the Patrol, with 5 per cent. off for spot cash. The Eureka company bid 80 cents for the Dixie Brand, 62lb., which was regarded by the committee as equal to the Keystone offered by the rival bidder. The contract was awarded to the Eureka company for delivery as soon as possible. The hose is guaranted for five years and to withstand a pressure of 500 pounds to the square inch. Some of the same hose is now giving the Wilmington department very general satisfaction.

BURGLAR SENTENCED

Samuel Johnston Given 25 Years for Entering Butler's House on Beach.

SHOCKLEY TRIAL TODAY

With the exception of the Shockley murder case, the trial of which will begin this morning at 9:30 o'clock, the docket at the present term of the New Hanover Superior Court is practically cleared. The case of Samuel Johnston, the West India negro employed as a waiter at Wrightsville and charged with burglarizing the house of Scipio Small, a butler on the beach few weeks ago, submitted to burglary in the second degree and the plea having been accepted by Solicitor Duffy, he was sentenced to 25 years at hard labor in the State penitentiary. Johnston stated that he was 32 years of age. He was given a sound lecture by Judge Jones when sentence was passed. The negro was represented by Woodus Kellum, Esq., and received his sentence with evident composure.

A venire of one hundred men has been summoned from which to select a jury to try the Shockley case this morning. It is expected that several days will be consumed in the trial. Counsel for the defence, composed of Messrs. Bellamy & Bellamy, Herbert McClammy and Walter P. Gafford, announce their readiness for the trial, and Judge Jones has insisted that the case be entered into at once. The Solicitor will be assisted by William J. Bellamy, Esq.

So far as could be learned there were no developments yesterday in the grand jury inquiry into the alleged primary frauds. A dozen or more witnesses were examined during the day and it is understood that subpoenas are being served on still others to appear to-day. The result of the investigation will not be known until the next term of court, as under the rule, any presentments that are made are sealed in an envelope and not opened until the Solicitor is ready to draw a bill of indictment and hand it down to the grand jury for passage as "true" or "not true" at the next term of court. Among the witnesses subpoenaed is Mr. G. J. Boney, author of the primary law in the last Legislature and active in local politics. It is understood that Mr. Boney alleges some irregularities in the registration in the Second ward. The grand jury is holding practically all day sessions and is hard at work. It is expected that an inspection of the public institutions, jail, Court House, County Home, etc., will be inspected to-day.

Court met at 9:30 A. M. yesterday pursuant to adjournment and the sheriff returned as talesmen for the day, Chas. F. Craig, J. W. Duls, J. G. Littig, Jr., S. H. Davis, Wm. H. Best, E. F. Johnson, James Swinson, Paul C. Greensberg and Jas. H. Burriss. Excused by the court: Jas. H. Burriss, J. R. Elmore was not found.

Wallace Johnson, charged with larceny and now on the roads under sentence from the January term, was given an additional 18 months.

Ni si sci fa and capiases were ordered in cases of Charlie Spicer, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, and Will Gibson, charged with carrying a concealed weapon.

The solicitor stated in open court at 3 P. M. that in the case of the State vs. Samuel Johnson that he would only ask for a verdict of burglary in the second degree and sentence was passed as stated above. There were no further cases for trial in the afternoon and recess was taken until 9:30 A. M. to-day.

RESPONSIBILITY OF CITY AUTHORITIES.

Speaking of the terrible situation in Atlanta, the Columbia Record says:

"The explanation is found in the fact that the authorities with gross disregard of their duty and the public welfare have permitted innumerable negro dives, the worst sort of dens of iniquity, to openly exist and operate in the city and suburbs. From newspaper accounts Decatur street appears to have been a long and continuous nest of them. The same condition exists on the outer edges of the city, and all these places have been the rendezvous of the most worthless, the most reckless and the most dangerous class of negro criminals. The authorities seem to have done nothing whatever to suppress them. From them a stream of criminal brutes has flown, which is responsible not only for numerous robberies, but the more serious crime of assaulting women. So strangely inactive were the police or other peace officers that some time ago a vigilance committee of citizens was formed for their own protection."

There is no doubt that the authorities of cities are largely responsible for some of the conditions that now and then become a mockery of good order and effective government. Too great care cannot be exercised in licensing dives or permitting unlicensed ones to exist. Everything of the dive order whether licensed or not should be closed before it becomes a menace to a community.

MAY BE BIG COTTON CROP.

The New Orleans Picayune always keeps well posted on the prospects of the cotton crop, and keeps up with the weather as a factor in that connection. What our estemed contemporary says at this stage of the crop is interesting. With the 1st of October measurably in sight, the character of the weather reports from day to day is now of less importance than the state of maturity of the crop and the prospect of early frost. The date of the first killing frost, on which so much depends, is a matter entirely out of the reach of calculation. A killing frost puts a stop to further growth of the cotton plant, hence should such a frost occur before the plant has developed all the fruit that might reasonably be expected of it, the crop is cut short to the extent of the undeveloped fruit. That the plants continue to make cotton until quite a late date in the Fall, past experience has amply demonstrated, hence an early frost always does damage, and the damage is greater should the crop be late, as it undoubtedly is this year in a good portion of the belt.

Speaking of the prospects for a late crop of cotton and the possibility of frost to cut the late crop off, the Picayune says:

"The Cotton Belt covers a very large area, and the climate varies considerably over this area. An average date for killing frost in Tennessee is naturally very much earlier than the average date for Texas and Louisiana. While, then, a killing frost around Oct. 20 might do damage if the crop be late in the more northerly portions of the Cotton Belt, such a frost is by no means likely to extend very far South. The average date of killing frost in most of the Gulf States comes in November, and not in October, hence in these States the crop must be very late indeed to be seriously exposed to damage from frost. This same lateness of the date of killing frost in the Gulf States permits the cotton plant to continue making until late in the Fall, so that in some years good weather in September and October has done much to turn what threatened to be a crop disaster into something nearer an average crop.

"The weather recently has been rather more favorable for the crop than it was early in September, and as a result reports from the country are less pessimistic. While there are some who cling to the belief that the crop will not be a large one, the prevailing opinion almost everywhere in the South is that the yield will be large. Just how large is, of course, the unknown quantity. It is rather a significant fact that at this late date the belief is growing that the acreage increase has been underestimated, but as acreage statistics are largely guesswork, there is no way of verifying this impression. What seems to be based upon a surer foundation, however, is the claim that very little of the acreage planted this season has had to be abandoned. After all known facts are considered, however, it must be admitted that the size of the crop is as much in doubt as ever."

We infer from the Picayune's review that it anticipates a big crop of cotton, especially if there is not a late frost. As to corn that crop is made and is being gathered. It is gratifying to note that the yield has been good all over the South, which is a matter of the very greatest economic importance. Fodder crops have also been very good, as a rule, which will further cut down the cash outlay of the farms and add correspondingly to the profits from the money crop, cotton.

HAIR TELLS CHARACTER.

Color of Hair Said to Indicate a Person's Temperament.

Many people believe that blonde, or light hair denotes affection and dark hair constancy. A person without hair is not devoid of character; far from it. The disposition of the average baldheaded man is to show such solicitude for the welfare of others, that he neglects himself. A germ causes baldness. Prof. Sabouraud, of Paris, France, inoculated a rabbit with Dandruff germs, causing it to become totally bald in five weeks' time. To rid the scalp of these dangerous germs it is necessary to apply Newbro's Herpicide.

"Destroy the cause—you remove the effect."

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—In Charlotte on Tuesday ticket agent T. G. Witherspoon, of the Southern Railway, was thrown from his bicycle and sustained a fracture of one of his cheek bones.

—The Rev. John H. Griffith, rector of the Episcopal church, Kinston, has received a call from the church at Oxford. He has gone there to look over the field.

—Mr. Emerson Winstead, a highly respected citizen, excellent Christian gentleman and one of the bravest of Confederate soldiers, passed away at his home in Elm City Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock in his 84th year. Both as a soldier and a citizen he has left a most honorable record.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Sept. 26: An unknown eighteen-year-old white boy was brought to the penitentiary by Sheriff Charlie Reid, of Pasquotank county, yesterday, to serve a two-year term for burglary. The name of the boy is unknown to the authorities at the State's Prison as the sheriff did not bring papers with him, so it was stated at the penitentiary last night.

—A fatal collision occurred on the Southern Railway on Tuesday near Kings Mountain in which engineer Dewitt, of the Southern lost his life. He was killed while attempting to jump from his engine in a side swipe collision. A freight engine struck the tender of the work train. Realizing his peril Mr. Dewitt attempted to leap to a place of safety. He was caught betwen the engines and was instantly killed.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Sept. 26th: Senator F. M. Simmons, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee, and Judge S. B. Adams, chairman of the State Republican Executive Committee, have agreed upon the correctness of the opinion of the attorney general as to the time the registration books should open and close for the approaching election. The books should open at 9 o'clock A. M. on Thursday, October 4th, 1906, and close at sunset on Saturday, October 27, 1906.

—Newbern special, Sept. 25: At half past eight o'clock tonight the plant of the North Carolina Stave Company caught fire and burned down quickly, involving a loss of $25,000. The flames originated in the dry kiln and spread rapidly to the other buildings. The plant is outside the city limits and beyond the reach of the fire hydrants; so it was impossible to prevent the destruction of the property. The plant is owned in the North.

—Raleigh News and Observer, Sept. 25: It was announced last night that the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Orphanage in this city had elected Rev. John N. Cole, D. D., superintendent of the Orphanage since its opening. Dr. Cole is presiding elder of the Rockingham district, and is one of the most faithful and courageous preachers in North Carolina. He is known and loved in every section of the State, and his ministry has been blessed with great good to the cause of Christanity wherever he has served. Dr. Cole is now in Raleigh and spent yesterday at the Orphanage. He will assume charge there November 1st. His election is subject to the approval of Bishop Wilson.

—Burlington special, Sept. 25: One of the greatest revival meetings ever seen here by the oldest citizens of the town is now in progress in the Baptist church. The services are conducted by the pastor, Rev. C. Almon Upchurch, and Rev. J. T. Jenkins, of Wilson. Thus far the meeting has resulted in seventy-five professions of religion, twenty-five of these taking place at Sunday's service. The entire town is being stirred, and the services are being attended by the people of all the denominations. Twelve hundred persons went to the church tonight for the evening service. At least 250 were turned away for lack of room.

—Kinston special, Sept. 25: Sunday night burglars entered the store of Jesse Williams, a colored merchant and tried to blow open the safe, but failed because both the saw and drill used were broken before the work was completed. These were found lying in front of the safe, on the floor, when Williams opened his store. The hinges to the safe were sawed off and a hole was drilled next to the lock for the purpose of inserting an explosive to blow the safe open, but the drill was evidently broken before the hole was bored deep enough and the robber quit before getting into the safe.

—Tarboro special, Sept. 25: Whether we are to have the Peanut Stocking Mill in the building of Albemarle avenue or at Runnymede may still be an open question, but the recklessness of some one connected with the Coast Line will greatly delay the time when the machinery gets into motion for business. The machinery arrived here some time ago, but in doing some lightning shift the cars containing this machinery, some $10,000 worth, were first knocked so hard that the cars were sent to the Fountain Mills. Since then other knocks from the same shifting hurry have so broken the macaines that the damage runs up probably into the thousands of dollars and the machinery cannot be installed.

—Spencer special, Sept. 25: H. F. Whitaker, of Pilot Mountain, father of Gray Whitaker, who was shot to death Friday by Conductor Philip Hedrick, was in Spencer last night looking after the prosecution in the case against Hedrick. Mr. Whitaker is employing counsel to assist Solicitor Hammer. He states that he finds all the evidence desired and that the case is a plain one. Young Whitaker was a mere youth, being only seventeen years of age and came of a model family of which Mr. Whitaker is the head. Captain Hedrick, who shot Whitaker in the alleged defense of the honor of his home, has done nothing beyond employing counsel. The date for a preliminary hearing has not yet been set. For a time after the tragedy Mrs. Hedrick's condition was serious, as she was rendered unconscious from the shock after witnessing the shooting by her husband.

—Spencer special. Sept. 25: "Tell my peoplei n Danville I will meet them in heaven," and with these words Charles Adams, a well dressed tobacconist of the above named city, jumped in front of a rapidly moving engine on the Spencer yards this morning. He talked with parties around the depot, saying he did not want to live, and sent word to relatives in Danville that he would never see them again. Later he told a trainman on the yards here that he wished to die, and to a call boy he said that he would end his life by jumping under the engine. He was seen to make one attempt, but the locomotive stopped before it struck him. Later he secured an advantageous spot and threw himself bodily in front of a locomotive.

WHITE HELP FOR THE SOUTH

Splendid Opportunity for Worthy Employment—Work is Not Menial, and Public Sentiment on Question is Changing.

(Chattanooga Times.)

The domestic servant problem has become so serious in a number of southern cities that a general movement has begun to secure white help. The other day the Augusta, Ga., Chronicle printed among its "want ads" the following:

"Wanted—Position; young white woman, first-class cook, at once. Address Batesburg, care Chronicle."

In answer to that advertisement more than a dozen Augusta housewives sought to secure the services of the Batesburg girl. The result was that the Chronicle advised other white girls to take up the avocation which would mean a revolution in the system of domestic service in the south. Commencing on the Augusta incident, the Macon Telegraph said:

"True, such servants (white), may cost a little more—but, like a certain well-advertised commodity, they will do twice the work, and last longer. It is also true that a different system would have to be instituted in our homes for the care of such servants; but this could be done with great profit to ourselves. Besides, the abolition of the basket and the bucket system would force hundreds of idle negro men and boys to go to work for a living."

We have no doubt that white families would be quite willing to reorganize the domestic system if they could only induce competent and self-respecting white women to accept service as cooks and house maids. The suggestion has been made that the Chambers of Commerce of the cities of the south suffering most from the present dearth of competent negro help ought to take the matter up and if possible create a public sentiment that would remove the objections most southern white women have for accepting places as domestics. In the northern and eastern cities no such objections exist and white women who go into such service are held in the highest esteem. In the south, of course, domestic service has been so long regarded as peculiarly the prolnce of women of color, that there has arisen an almost insuperable opposition even on the part of the housewives to placing white women in positions by long custom they regard as menial.

But grim necessity and the disinclination of the younger generation of colored women to enter this service, are likely to work a great change of sentiment in this regard. It is a coming question even Chattanooga will have to face before very long, and its agitation is therefore at this time most opportune.

The Augusta incident at least shows that white women who are willing to accept domestic service will not have to beg for positions.

"THE SWASTIKA" IS THE NAME.

New Shoe Store to be Opened by Messrs. Hewlett & Price.

"The Swastika" is the name decided upon by Messrs. Hewlett & Price, the enterprising young Wilmington men, for the new shoe store which they will open on Market street in the very near future. The name was selected from about a thousand others suggested by mail to the firm in response to an advertisement offering a pair of fine shoes and a pair of slippers to the person submitting the most appropriate. The reply came from a lady signing "M," Postoffice Box 359, and if she will call at the store, she may receive the prize offered.

The name is regarded as very appropriate and is the Indian word for "Good Luck." At the same time it is musical and catchy for advertising purposes. The "Swastika" will enter the field full of promise and with a good name.

FAYETTEVILLE LIQUOR LAW

May Sell Liquor on Prescription; Not Wine and Beer.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Fayetteville, N. C., Sept. 26.—The Chief of Police has notified all the druggists that they must cease selling beer or wine on doctors' prescriptions; that hereafter only whiskey can be dispensed. They can sell whiskey but not wine or beer. The attention of the Mayor and the Chief of Police being called to section four of the prohibition act of Cumberland county, in which it mentions only the words 'Spirituous liquors," they took the steps above mentioned. Read the statements of Wilmington citizens.
And decide for yourself.
Here is one case of it:

H. W. Bagg, merchant and furnitnre manufacturer of Second and Market streets, residing at 114 North Sixth St., says: "I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they proved to be a grand medicine, and I can only say that Doan's Ointment is the best remedy of the kind on the face of the earth. I suffered with my back for a long time. When I sat at my desk for a while and attempted to get up I would have to catch hold of the chair for support and straighten myself up gradually. The kidney secretions were dark colored and full of sediment. I read about Doan's Kidney Pills in our papers and went to R. R. Bellamy's drug store and got a box. Since using them my back is strong and I can move about and stand up straight as ever and the kidney secretions have all cleared up. You may use my name as an endorser of the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills and also Doan's Ointment which I used with good results."

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

"FINNEGAN'S BALL."

Fourteen Years A Comedy Favorite, Coming Saturday Night.

Everything new in the world of fun now-a-days recalls to us all the dim distant past. It takes a mighty good article to last 14 years but it takes an extra good show to last 14 years. That is the record "Finnegan's Ball" has to its credit. This season it is in a new dress but the even flow of real Irish wit and humor are sustained. Just enough pathos to blend with the comedy to make it an ideal something one seems to feel better after having seen. The songs, dances, and specialties are of the best talent that can be produced from the ranks of vaudeville's best. The company appears at the Academy Saturday night and for the performance seats have been reduced to 75 cents.

W. R. HEARST FOR GOVERNOR

volume of tribute drawn from the masses of the community is the least pernicious of its results. The wide emulation in plunder which it evokes is its worst result.

"We denounce the socialism which seeks to make government the sole agent of production as nothing less than a proposal to re-establish the institution of tyranny and industrial slavery which perished before the advance of Christian civilization."

The platform was unanimously adopted.

Hearst Had Retired.

New York, September 27.—Notice of Mr. Hearst's nomination by the Democratic convention at Buffalo, was telephoned to his residence at 2 o'clock this morning. It was stated at the home that Mr. Hearst had retired for tonight and would make no statement at present.

TO CLOSE ATLANTA DIVES.

Every Whiskey License in City Revoked Till October 1st.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Atlanta, Ga., September 26.—Perfect quiet prevailed throughout the city today. All the factories shut down have opened up and thorough confidence has been restored on every side. The colored as well as the white employes have returned to their regular work and normal conditions both industrially and commercially have been resumed.

This action was taken on a report from the police committee which had been requested to investigate the saloons and ascertain what places could be classed as dives and unfit to engage in the liquor trade. The committee, after striking fifty-seven saloons decided that such arbitrary action might be unjust to many saloon men and when a conference was held with the citizens' committee it was decided to recommend to council the revoking of all licenses for the purpose of weeding out the dives.

Military headquarters have been withdrawn from the center of the city, out of town military companies have been sent home and the authorities state that they expect no more trouble as the quiet of the past twenty-four hours is proof in plenty that no further outbreaks are being contemplated by either whites or blacks.

That those who have been guilty of rioting during the past few days will be severely punished was indicated by the charge of Judge Pendleton to the grand jury today. Public sentiment is strong for the detection of those responsible for the crimes committed and many have already volunteered to give evidence such as will bring about conviction of the guilty and so insure the future safety of Atlanta from the ravages of race war.

All of the dead and injured, for whom a public subscription has been started, are being cared for and the wounded, both black and white, are receiving every attention while the subscription grows rapidly.

WARM WIRELETS.

William J. Bryan and Mrs. Bryan arrived in Memphis yesterday from New Orleans and were escorted to a hotel for a few hours rest. Despite a down pour of rain, a large crowd was at the railway station. Mr. Bryan delivered an address in the afternoon at the Lyceum theatre.

At Steubenville, O., yesterday the grand jury returned an indictment against Roy W. Talbott, of Cleveland, for murder in the second degree. Talbott was captain of the guards at the United States Coal Company's mines at Bradley during the late coal strike, and the indictment was found on the fact that he gave the guards order to fire when Frank Kluntassara, a miner, was killed. Another indictment was returned against Captain Talbott and Guard G. Kennedy, of Cleveland, for shooting with intent to kill and wound.

Representatives of the Order of Railway Conductors who have been in Portsmouth for more than a week in almost daily conference with officials of the Seaboard Air Line railroad relative to a new wage scale decided on at a recent convention of the order departed for their homes last night. RIGHT ON TO PENITENTIARY.

Bank Wrecker Stensland Confessed to Embezzlement and Sentenced.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Chicago, September 26.—Paul O. Stensland, to whose confessed embezzlement of $400,000 was due chiefly to the collapse of the Milwaukee Avenue State Bank, of which he was president, today was sentenced in record time to serve one to ten years in the penitentiary. Within three hours after Stensland's arrival in Chicago today from Morocco, the former bank president pleaded guilty and received sentence. Before another three hours had elapsed the convicted banker had begun service of the sentence at Joliet prison. Stensland pleaded guilty on two indictemnts, charging embezzlement and violation of the State banking laws. A fine of $120 was imposed on the latter charge, which was based upon the acceptance of $60 in deposits after the bank was insolvent. The prison sentences imposed, which will operate concurrently, are from one to five, and from one to ten years, making the longest possible term ten years.

Stensland's arrival in Chicago was greeted by a crowd of several hundred persons who awaited the coming of thetwentieth century limited on which the prisoner and his captors were passengers.

The crowd was demonstrative, although offering no violence, and the effect upon Stensland was noticeable. He became nervous and seemingly apprehensive of being harmed. The drive to the criminal court building was accomplished without incident.

Stensland, haggard and trembling, was hurried between a double line of policemen into State's Attorney Healey's presence. A conference lasting an hour ensued between Stensland, Healey, Assistant State's Attorney Olsen and Barbour, and several attaches of the office. After the conference Mr. Healey said:

"Stensland made a full confession of everything connected with the affairs of the bank. He has told us of his own acts and facts about others. What he has revealed makes the bank affairs less dark for himself."

The court proceedings, which followed immediately, were conducted hurriadly.

TROPICAL STORM COMING.

Reached Florida Last Night and Headed This Way.

Washington, September 26.—The big storm which has been headed this way from the tropics reached the Frorida coast tonight and raged with high winds off the west side of the peninsula. Around Pensacola it blew 48 miles an hour and storm warnings are displayed all along the Gulf coast from Tampa to Port Eads, and on the Atlantic coast from Jupiter, Fla., to Norfolk, Va. According to the weather officials, during the next 24 hours the storm is expected to move North, northeastward and high winds are scheduled for the South Atlantic and Middle Gulf coast.

The four-masted schooner Laura C. Anderson, Captain Hibee, of New York, bound from Charleston, S. C., September 9th, with cross ties for New York, was towed into Hampton Roads Monday night by the tug I. J. Merritt, which will tow the schooner on to New York. The Anderson met the storm off Cape Lookout September 16 and 17, and anchored at sea. She suffered considerably and in a dived sea lost her jobboom and foremast and all attachments. She is leaking to some extent.

ROME WAS NOT BUILT IN A DAY

But Here Are Five Men Who Have Been Cured of the Liquor Habit in Three Days—What Wilmington People Say of The McKanna 3-Day Liquor Cure.

Jordan T. McIver, 107 S. 8th Street, aged 25 years, says: "I have been a hard drinker for eight years, and frequently consumed a quart of whiskey in a day. I have been in the police courts perhaps 50 times and in recent years been serving sentences a great deal of my time. All the money I made has been spent for liquor. Since taking treatment under Dr. McKanna I feel like a new person. I sleep better than I have for six months, and have had no desire for liquor since the 3rd hour after I began the treatment. I am confident that I am permanently cured.

JORDAN T. McIVER.

J. A. Mote, aged 28 years, Castle St., between 6th and 7th, says: "I am confident that I am cured of the appetite for whiskey. I have no desire in the world for a drink and I feel that my general health has been greatly improved. When I was brought to Dr. McKanna I was suffering with cramps, which physicians say were caused by whiskey. This all disappeared. My appetite is good and I sleep well. I feel very grateful for being able to return to my family to-night a sober man. My friends who secured the free treatment for me and Dr. McKanna have my lasting thanks.

"J. A. MOTE."

The patient whose name is withheld by request of his family, aged 48, says: "I had been a heavy drinker for 14 years, except for a while after I took another treatment. The past four years I have been drinking a great deal. I am sure that Dr. McKanna's treatment is entirely different from the others and by far ahead of them. I have no more desire for liquor now than when I was a baby. I am confident that the drink I took at 11 o'clock Tuesday—four hours after I began the treatment—is the last one that will ever go down my throat. I feel grateful to Dr. McKanna from the depth of my heart."

R. B. Register, 704 S. 2nd Street, age 50 years, says: "I have been a periodical drinker for 20 years, during which time I spent a great deal of money. I am confident that Dr. McKanna has cured me of the liquor habit, and I am very glad he has been to Wilmington and given me an opportunity to receive his treatment. I feel sure that my cure is permanent, and that as a result a blessing has been bestowed upon me and my wife and six children. I am satisfied that the liquor habit has deprived me and my family of enjoying a fortune to-day Dr. McKanna has done for me more than he claimed.

"R. B. REGISTER."

Henry C. Lumsden, Front and Dock Streets, age 68, says: "My only regret is that I did not find Dr. McKanna 25 years ago. How different life would have been with me! I have been a victim of this dreadful habit many years, and have wasted my opportunities. I can truthfully say I believe I am perfectly cured of the desire for liquor, and I know I feel well in every way. My appetite is fine and none of us have suffered any inconvenience or pain of any kind while taking the treatment. I shall spend the rest of my life as a sober man, I feel sure.

"HENRY C. LUMSDEN."

The above patients began the treatment Monday at 7 A. M., and were discharged as cured Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock. They are all wellknown citizens of Wilmington andthe public is invited to see and talk with them about the treatment.. Dr. McKanna, since arriving in Wilmington, has received the following letter from a brother of Police Justice Badger, of Raleigh, concerning the class he treated in the Capital City a month ago:

Raleigh, N. C., September 24, 1906.

My Dear Doctor:

I hasten to respond to your request in reference to the "experimental class." Honeycutt, Johnson, Nowell White and "Lonny"—the first four are white men—having discarded every semblance of the wretched abandoned appearance of criminals, debauched with liquor, and sleepy expression, hair moist with sticky perspiration, eyes as though affected with serious conjectivites, cheeks flaccid and noduled and minds revelling in the profane, the vulgar and the obscene— the scene has changed as if by magic. and I hope irrevocably.

I saw "Sonny" (Louis Gill) today dressed in a new outfit entire. His business is crowding him. I made an examination, which you remember reminded one of the plague or leprosy. To me the pustulent nature of the irruptions suggested an impetigonous origin. They have all past, but their trace is perceptible by the dark limits, but smooth skin, left. They are in a cicatrizant condition. But there is one on the forearm, half way between the track of the Ulna and radius. that appears like an embolic abcess, suggesting acclusion of a blood vessel, although he tells me this is fast disappearing. He says he willwrite you for another bottle of tonic.

"All's well that ends well," and I see no reason why any other turn of affairs may occur.

Yours truly,

L. BADGER.

If you have further doubt about the efficacy of this treatment we respectfully refer you to Mayor P. D. Watt, of Reidsville; Mayor S. S. McNinch, of Charlotte; City Recorder Charles C. Stanley, of Columbia, and officers of western cities in which we have had sanitariums for the past 17 years. This is the only Liquor Cure endorsed by Governors, Supreme Court Judges. officials of Railroad and Insurance Companies.

The treatment is administered in our Reidsville sanitarium by its discoverer, Dr. J. J. McKanna, and trained attendants from our western sanitariums. Female attendants for lady patients.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, September 26.—The cotton market was somewhat irregular today but steady in the main with the close at net advance of 5 to 9 points. Sales were estimated at 200,000 bales. The market opened firm at an advance of 3 to 9 points on higher cables and unfavorable weather reports. Prices advanced to a net gain of 9 to 1. points during the early session, the feature being the demand for October which seemed to be led by brokers with Liverpool connection and which led to rumors that the local stock would be taken up on October contract for shipment to the English market. This relative steadiness of the near position undoubtedly helped the market on the raise but local offerings were heavy at the advance and during the middle session prices reacted to within 4 or 5 points of last night's finals on Washington dispatches to the effect that the intensity of the West Indian storm was diminishing and that it might not reach the belt. The close, however, was steady on reports of steady southern spot markets.

Receipts cotton at the ports today 44,358 bales, against 21,799 last week, and 46,409 last year. For the week 295,000 bales, against 185,934 last week and 293,723 last year. WM. R. HEARST FOR GOVERNOR

HE LEAD THROUGHOUT FIGHT

Resolution Extolling Bryan and Felicitating Him Adopted—Platform Inveighs Against Socialism, Corruption and Graft.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

Convention Hall, Buffalo, N. Y., September 27.—In a session which began before 8 o'clock last night and was continued till long after midnight the Democratic State Convention nominated William Randolph Hearst for Governor. A test vote on the adoption of the majority report of the committee of the contested seats showed the Hearst element to have the necessary strength to win and the final result was only a question of time.

Congressman William Sulzer was placed in nomination, his name being greeted by a great outburst of cheering which continued 14 minutes.

John A. Dix, of Washington, county, has also been named for governor.

The session was marked by extreme bitterness, Mr. Hearst being arraigned and denounced roundly by a number of speakers. The language indulged in stirred the delegates into wild demonstrations for and against the sentiment of the speakers.

The vote for Governor was, first ballot: Hearst, 309; Sulzer, 124; Dix, 17. Necessary to choice 226.

John S. Whalen, of Monroe, was chosen for Secretary of Stae, unanimously, and Martin H. Glynn, of Albany, was unanimously chosen for State Controller.

William Schuyler Jackson, was chosen far Attorney General, and for State Treasurer, Julius Hauser, of Suffolk, was chosen.

Frederick W. Skene, of Queens, was chosen for State Engineer and Surveyor, completing the nomination and the convention adjourned at 2:20 A. M.

The following is an abstract of the platform adopted by the Democratic convention:

"At this time when the authority of Democracy is invoked to defend plunder of the masses by a few rich men, through partial laws on one hand, and, on the other to justify many extravagant and revolutionary proposals, which if adopted must inevitably produce worse disasters than the abuses they seek to cure, we deem it eminently fitting to declare that the whole Democratic principle is embraced in the injunction laid on the first man —that in the sweat of their brows he and all his posterity must eat their bread.

"We denounce Republican high protection which enables a few to plunder the whole body of their fellow citizens, charging extortionate prices for the necessaries of life and the essentials of industry.

"We deplore as the most sinister consequence of the corruption and graft which degrades our political and industrial life, the widespread distrust and discredit of republican government which they have produced and which have led many men of undoubted probity and ardent patriotism to listen patiently, if not approvingly, to proposals distinctly socialistic, which if adopted must inevitably wreck the foundation of republican government and endanger the entire fabric of Christian civilization.

"We hold that the cure for these abuses is not in socialism which by enormously extending the power of government must aggravate, but in Democracy, which by excluding government from any interference whatever with private industry, must cure them.

"It is the duty of government to ascertain the actual cost of operating all public service corporations and to fix from time to time reasonable rates for the service they perform.

"We ask the Federal government to exercise its influence to bring about speedy cessation of the atrocites now being committed against the Jews in Russia.

"In common with the Democrats of all the tSates, and expressing the sentiment of the high minded citizenship of the republic without reference to party, we view with pride and satisfaction the hospitality and acclaim which have been accorded, at home and abroad, to that great Democratic leader and typical American, William J. Bryan, to whom the Democrats of New York extend most cordial and sincere felicitations.

HOT WORDS BY CUBANS AGAINST TAFT AND BACON

President Palma's Adherents Accuse Them of Siding With Rebels and Subjecting Cuba to Negro Domination—Prospects for Settlement.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Havana, Sept. 26.—A meeting of the Moderate national assembly was hastily called this afternoon to decide the pressing question whether some way could not yet be devised to settle the present difficulty without the threatened american intervention.

Those present included Vice President Mendez Capote, nearly all the members of the cabinet, and almost all the leading senators and representatives.

No sooner had the meeting assembled than the pent-up indignation against the American peace commissioners broke forth. Several men begun in loud voices and at the same time to condemn Secretary of War Taft and Acting Secretary of State Bacon who were declared to have shown partiality in backing the rebels. The speakers shouted denunciations against the American government and hotly insisted that the Moderate party should appeal to the powers of the world for protection against the usurpation of the sovereignty of Cuba by the United States.

It was declared that the government forces should fight to the death rather that submit to the terms insisted upon by the rebels, and one speaker depicted the horrors of negro domination which would result, he said, from the threatened liberal ascendancy brought about with the alleged assistance of the United States. Some of the most radical present asserted that the government had plenty of dynamite in Havana which could be used to precipitate those international complications that accrue from the destruction of foreign property.

Certain American properties were specifically mentioned as convenient for such attacks. Several speakers even said that they would prefer Germany or Great Britain in Cuba to the United States.

This evolution of frenzy subsided after an hour and a half and the meeting then settled down to a consideration of the more rational question whether it were not possible to reopen the negotiations with the peace commissioners. The one point upon which the meeting was unanimous was that the cardinal condition of the re-opening of negotiations should be that the Moderates insist that the commissioners request the rebels to lay down their arms before proceeding to negotiate.

It was agreed that Acting Secretary of the Interior Montalve should visit the American commissioners and acquaint them with the party's insistence of this condition. Senor Montalvo therefore proceeded to the American legation and submitted this condition to Messrs. Taft and Bacon, adding that if the proposition was not acceptable to them the government forces would refuse to lay down their arms or deliver them either to the rebels or the commissioners. The solution proposed by the commissioners, Senor Montalvo asserted, were conducive to further revolution as a result of the victory which the revolutionists would obtain through the action of the commissioners. Senor Montalvo concluded with these words:

"Only on a basis of law and justice can the Moderates continue treating for peace."

Meanwhile Senator Dolz sent for by by Secretary Taft, made the following proposition, requesting the opinion of the commissioners thereon:

"That both sides appoint committees of six to treat for peace but with the prior condition that the rebels lay down their arms."

Secretry Taft approved this except that it was unfair to make the rebels lay down their arms before the acceptance of both parties of a formal agreement to abide by the terms of the ultimate decision. Senor Dolz returned to the assembly and reported the result of his efforts.

At the resumption of the meeting, after discussing the views of Secretary Taft, the assembly precipitately receded from its various contentions that the rebels must lay down their arms before negotiations could be re-opened, and resolved to notify Secretary Taft that they would appoint upon which no agreement was similar committee from the Liberals to negotiate peace terms, leaving all point upon which no agreemnt was reached to the arbitration of the American commissioners. The assembly directed that Secretary Taft be requested to arrange for the appointment of a similar committee by the Liberals.

It was agreed that at the extraordinary session of Congress called for next Friday to receive the resignation of President Palma would be tabled pending these negotiations with the hope of obviating the necessity of his leaving office.

While this phase of the controversy was wholly unexpected, Secretary Taft was greatly pleased therewith and made the following statement for publication:

"My impression is that we are much nearer a solution of the trouble tonight than we were last night."

It was announced also that the negotiations to be opened between the committees representing the opposing parties would be without reference to the terms previously proposed. The time and place for the first meeting is to be determined by Secretary Taft tomorrow.

It is beyond question that both parties were brought to a more tractable frame of mind by the verbal ultimatum isued by Secretary Taft and Secretary Bacon today in the name of President Roosevelt that unless they consent to a fair arbitration the United States must compel the same by a temporary military occupation. Such an occupation it was declared, would not mean American sovereignty. It would continue only until new elections had been held, the new government firmly established and order restored.

The Impression at Washington.

Washington, September 26.—While not abating in any degree the preparations for transporting troops to Cuba in accordance with the wishes of the President, the ranking officials here in the army and navy are today still of the opinion that Secretary Taft will succeed in effecting an arrangement which will obviate the necessity for landing of a single American soldier on Cuban soil. They believe that events in Havana are shaping up directly in accordance with the plans of the Secretary of War and that while the situation appears to be desperate, the present aspect is really only one phase of the programme mapped out by Secretary Taft. It is believed that his purpose was to clear the field for a complete re-construction in Cuba, but that this did not necessarily involve intervention in the sense of armed occupation of the island by American troops. President Palma's withdrawal, or at least that of conservative advisers who surrounded him, was however, believed to be essential to the working out of this plan. It is conjectured that the Secretary's purpose is to carry out direct instructions from President Roosevelt and give the Cubans another chance to govern their own island.

The only way this could be worked out would be for him to call together some of the most patriotic and judicious of the Cubans, without regard to party affiliations, and ask them to create a provisional government. The insurgent generals would be asked to give their allegiance to this government temporarily, at least, and the military forces of the Palma government would be expected to support it. The provisional government would be pledged to call new elections under conditions that would insure the control of the permanent government by a majority of the Cuban people, and if they fail again to maintain order and security in the island then intervention must ensure, resulting in probable annexation.

President Roosevelt is expected to arrive in Washington next Monday night and army officers are of the opinion that there will be no sensational developments in Cuban affairs before that time. The President has been constantly in communication with Major-General F. C. Ainsworth, military secretary, and Brigadier J. Franklin Bell, the chief of the army, for several days. All their plans for preparing to meet any emergency which may demand the sending of troops to Cuba have been approved at Oyster Bay and the President has repeatedly concurred in recommendations by general staff officers that everything possible be in readiness for any turn the Cuban crisis may take. At the President's suggestion officers in all parts of the United States have been advised to prepare for a call to service in Cuba, and if "worst come to worst" the men and officers of the army can be ready to sail long before transportation can be provided for them.

The War Department cannot prepare commercial ships for transport service in less than a week after taking possession of them. Consequently if there were urgent demand for troops in Cuba at this time orders to rent steamers for transports would doubtless have been issued before this. The army cannot depend on the navy for transport service and a score or more of merchant vessels must be chartered in case military occupation of the island is decided upon.

HUGHES NAMED FOR GOVERNOR

Republican State Convention of New York Nominated Strong Ticket Yesterday.

STATE MACHINE DOWNED.

Lawyer Who Conducted Insurance Investigation Nominated By Acclamation—Was Roosevelt's Preference.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Saratoga, N. Y., September 26.—Expedition marked the second and final day of the Republican State convention. From the time early this morning when it became known that Charles E. Hughes, of New York, would be nominated for Governor by acclamation the other proceedings practically became formal and were pushed to completion with the utmost speed. The selection of the remainder of the ticket and the choice of Timothy Woodruff to succeed B. B. Odell as State chairman were accomplished before the convention assembled and it only remained for the convention to ratify all that had been arranged and to adjourn. The permanent organization was quickly effected, the chairman, State Senator W. W. Armstrong, of Rochester, delivered his speech, the credentials committee reported, the platform was read and adopted and a complete State ticket nominated.

General Stewart L. Woodford, former United States Minister to Spain, read the platform and emphasized the cardinal features of Republicanism and the features of its party administrations, both State and National. Mention of President Roosevelt in the resolutions and in speeches evoked applause. Brevity was an appreciated feature of the nominating speeches while the principal speech in which Job H. Edgers, of New York, placed Charles E. Hughes in nomination for governor, was the most interesting event of the proceedings.

Representative Herbert Parsons, made the speech proposing the re-nomination of Lieutenant Governor M. Linn Bruce, the man he had kept from the head of the ticket, and whom he praised highly.

One ballot was cast for the nomination of John F. O'Brien for Secretary of State; Martin E. Lewis for Comptroller; J. G. Wallenmein for State Terasurer and H. A. VanAlstyne for State Engineer and Surveyor; and Julius M. Mayer for Attorney General.

When the opposition to Hughes found it impossible, or at least inadvisable to nominate Bruce for governor and began seeking elsewhere for a candidate, defeat for the old time leaders, and victory for the new and almost unknown leaders followed swiftly.

The understood preference of President Roosevelt for Hughes and the declaration of Governor Higgins that he was not opposing that preferred candidate, contributed materially to the result.

Oyster Bay, September, 26.—The following telegram, sent by the President after he had been notified of the nomination by the Republican State convention of Charles E. Hughes for governor, was made public here tonight:

"Hon. Charles E. Hughes:—

"I rejoice, for the sake of the cause of good citizenship, in your nomination.

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

Over fifty representatives of lumber companies of Misouri, Texas, Alabama, Louisiana, and Missippi, assembled at the Jefferson Hotel in St. ouis yesterday to make preliminary arrangements for forming an association which will represent a capital of several million dollars and be known as the Southern Lumber Operators' Association. The primary object of the proposed organization is to find means for overcoming the shortage of cars for shipping purposes.

TRAIN WRECKED AND WAS BURNED

Four Men Killed or Roasted to Death and Others Are Missing.

THIRTY-SEVEN ARE INJURED

Every Coach of Fine Passenger Train Turned Over and All But One Were Completely Destroyed By Fire.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)

Danville, Ills., September 26.—Passenger train No. 8 of the Wabash Railroad, running from Kansas City to Buffalo, N. Y., known as the Buffalo mail, ran into an open switch west of Catlin, Ills., early today, and crashed into a section of a freight train. All the passenger cars but one turned over and burned. Four persons are known to have been killed and many injured. Thirty-seven of the injured, one of whom may die, are being taken care of at Danville hospitals.

The dead are:

Engineer J. S. Butler, of Peru, Ind.

W. W. Ellison, fireman, LaFayette, Ind.

C. H. Karnes, mail clerk.

Edward Harding, mail clerk, Ivesville, Ills.

Mail Clerk Harding was pinioned beneath the mail car. He was roasted to death before he could be cut out. Engineer Bptler and Fireman Ellison were crushed beneath their engine. Their bodies afterward burned. A carload of paint attached to the freight train was burned and it is in the wreckage. George Goodman is believed to have burned to death.

The train consisted of engine, smoker, baggage car, two Pullmans, one chair car and a diner. All but the diner were burned. The train was going at the rate of 60 miles an hour and nearly every passenger was asleep at the time.

Nearly every one lost all clothing except night wear. The farmers took care of the wounded and provided what clothing they could. The passengers were taken to Danville by a relief train.

PANIC ON STEAMER AT SEA.

Lives of About 15,000 People Endangered By Fire.

By Wire to The Morning Star.

New York, September 26.—Fire in the steamer's hold, during the voyage from Naples, created a panic on board the Italian steamer Nord America of the LaVolce Line which arrived today. No one was injured and the fire extinguished after hard work and without serious damage. The Nord America carried 85 cabin passengers and 1,333 persons in the steerage. The steamer left Naples September 13 and on the morning of the 20th fire was discovered in the coal on the starboads side forward. Without alarming the passengers, Captain DeBarbier summoned the crew to fire quarters and the flames were fought. But the smell of smoke reached the steerage where the people at once became restless. As a precaution, armed guards were placed at the boats with orders to shoot at the first indication of a scramble to board them. The Italians gave no trouble and the fire was apparently extinguished. The flames broke out fiercely the next day however, and was put out only by flooding the compartment. The liner reached here without further incident.

At Princeton, N. J., yesterday while carrying the ball over for a touchdown in a practice game of football, at Lawrenceville, John P. Kennedy, captain and right-half-back of the Lawrenceville eleven, was kicked in the head. He walked off the field apparently unhurt, but died an hour later in the gymnasium of the school. He was 21 years old, and his home was at Troy, N. Y.
